

- listings. server. controller. js handles get/add/remove/update functions for the listings.
- The couter uses were parameters to determine flow of reguest handling. -listings.client.routes.js lets the user know a task was completed successfully with $state.go()
- error handling is done in the Controllers as well. Both client and server side.